

Programme*

"LATIN AMERICA & THE CARIBBEAN: HISTORY PERSPECTIVES AND THE IADB ROLE"

Dr. EUGENIO DIAZ BONILLA, Executive Director for Argentina & Haiti, Inter-American Development Bank

Thursday 5, May at 18.30 hs.

"BEING OR NOT BEING BRITISH: FOOTBALL & POLO IN ARGENTINA"

Dr. Eduardo P. Archetti, Professor of Social Anthropology at the University of Oslo.

Tuesday 10, May at 18.30 hs.

Ambassador Federico Mirré will introduce the above 45 minutes presentations which will be followed by 15 minutes Q&A and a wine reception.*

RSPV
0207 318 1319
0207 318 1324

embar.ru@btclick.com

(Please, indicate your choice/s Numbers of seats restricted)

Argentine Residence
49 Belgrave Square
London, SW1X.

Wines Courtesy of

Escorihuela Gayson

EUGENIO DIAZ BONILLA
Executive Director for Argentina & Haiti,
Inter-American Development Bank

Dr. Eugenio A. Diaz-Bonilla, an Argentine national, has more than 30 years of professional experience as an economist, working with the public and private sector in different developing countries. He has been consultant and staff member with several international organizations: the World Bank, United Nations Development Program (UNDP), Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO), Inter-American Institute for Cooperation in Agriculture (IICA), Organization of American States (OAS), and the International Food Policy Research Institute (IFPRI). He advised Ministers and senior public officials in different countries in Latin America and the Caribbean on macroeconomic and trade policies, poverty alleviation and food security programs, and project financing. Mr. Diaz-Bonilla has held diplomatic positions representing his country and negotiating trade and agricultural issues in bilateral, regional, and multilateral negotiations. He has written extensively on economic development, trade, poverty and food security issues. He holds a degree in Economics from the Universidad de Buenos Aires (Argentina), a Master in International Relations from the School of Advanced International Studies of The Johns Hopkins University, and a Ph.D. in Economics from Johns Hopkins University as well. Currently he is the Executive Director for Argentina and Haiti at the Inter-American Development Bank. Mr. Diaz-Bonilla is married with 3 children.

EDUARDO ARCHETTI
Professor of Social Anthropology,
University of Oslo

Dr. Eduardo P. Archetti is Professor of Social Anthropology at the University of Oslo. He holds a Master in Sociology from the Universidad de Buenos Aires (Argentina), a PhD in Social Anthropology from the Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales (France). He was Director of the Latin America Faculty of Social Sciences, Buenos Aires and Director of the Master Programme of the Universities of Oslo and San Carlos, Guatemala. He is a founder member of the European Association of Social Anthropologists and Member of the Social Sciences Section of the Royal Academy of Norway. He is currently working in a comparative analysis of dance, music and sport in Argentina, Brazil and Cuba. He has recently started a new research project on wine, culture and society in Argentina titled: "Argentina is Malbec". His main books are "Exploring the Written. Anthropology and the Multiplicity of Writing" (1994), "Guinea Pigs. Food, Symbol and Conflict of Knowledge in Ecuador" (1997), "Masculinities. Football, Polo and the Tango in Argentina" (1999), and "El potrero, la pista y el ring. Las patrias del deporte argentino" (2001). He has edited, jointly with Noel Dyck, "Sport, Dance, and Embodied Identities" (2003). He was visiting Professor at the University of St. Andrews, University of Manchester, University of Buenos Aires, Catholic University in Quito, Central University in Managua, University of Texas, Austin, University of San Carlos, Guatemala and University of Misiones and University of San Martin in Argentina.
