

The Argentine Embassy is proud to present

Edith Grynszpancholc

who will share with us her experience of transforming sorrow and loss into creative solidarity in support of children facing cancer

at 6 pm on 13 March

at the Argentine Embassy

Fundación Natalí Dafne Flexer is an Argentine charity founded by Edith Grynszpancholc in 1995 to help children with cancer and their families to improve their quality of life, through a wide range of services, activities and links with other institutions, such as hospitals, schools and other similar charities.

For additional information please visit www.fundacionflexer.org

65 Brook St.
London
W1K 4AH

RSVP: cooperation@argentine-embassy-uk.org