presents

*" ARGENTINA 2005
within the context of the new South American Union"*

by

Dr Rosendo Fraga

Wednesday 19 January 2005 at 11.45 for 12:00pm at BBVA, 108 Cannon Street, 4th floor, EC4N 6EU

Dr Rosendo Fraga is a leading Argentine political analyst, journalist and historian. He writes regularly for several newspapers such as La Nación, Clarín, La Prensa, Cronista, Página 12 and Ámbito Financiero. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Argentine Council for International Relations (CARI) and Executive Director of Nueva Mayoría.com. He has published thirty-three books on political, historical and military topics and has been awarded many honours, including the Silver Laurel for the Personality of the Year and the Konex Award for Journalism. He was also awarded the 'Orden a los Servicios Distinguidos' in the rank of Commander by the Argentine Army.

Dr Fraga has addressed chamber members on several previous occasions and this will be an excellent opportunity to learn of his views as regards the political and economic challenges and prospects for Argentina in 2005 and the progress made by the newly founded South American Union. Sandwiches and wine will be served after the talk.

This event will take place on Wednesday 19 January 2005 at 11.45 for 12:00pm
